punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(2) and 109(1) of BNS, 2023, and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, and Section 3 of TNPPDL Act, 1992, in Crime No.118 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 01.04.2026, during a temple festival, a dispute arose between two communities and the petitioner and other accused persons unlawfully assembled and abused the rival group and pelted stones at both the rival group and the police officials, thereby causing injuries and damaging the public property. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He would further submit that it is a case in counter case. a counter complaint has been registered against the rival group in Crime No.116 of 2026 and in the counter complaint, this Court has already granted anticipatory bail to them. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and the injured person has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous cases. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and there was a dispute between the parties during temple festival and the counter complaint has been registered against the defacto complainant in Crime No.116 of 2026 and in the counter complaint, this Court has already granted anticipatory bail to them and the petitioner has no previous cases and also considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Sivagiri, and
