2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information on 24.08.2025 at about 06.30 a.m., the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence, where they found the accused persons are in possession of 22 kilograms of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The contraband were recovered from A1 and A2. Co-accused has been released on bail. Based on the confession statement of the co-accused this petitioner has been implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The quantity involved in this case is commercial quantity. The contraband was recovered from A1 and A2. On their confession statement, other accused persons have been implicated in this case. The petitioner has one previous case. Investigation has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, though the quantity involved in this case is commercial quantity, the contraband were recovered from A1 and A2 and not from this petitioner, on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused, this petitioner has been implicated in this case, though the petitioner has one previous case, in that case he was granted bail, co-accused has also been released on bail, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned District and Sessions Judge, Principal Special Judge for EC and NDPS Court, Madurai, and on further conditions that:
