2. The case of the prosecution is that due to money dispute, the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language and made an assault upon him and caused injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 09.04.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that there was a money dispute between the parties. Due to which, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him and caused injuries and the investigation is still pending and the petitioner has 1 previous case (379 of IPC). Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and there is a money dispute between the parties and the injured was discharged from the hospital and though the petitioner has 1 previous case, in that case, he was granted bail and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
