The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the respondent police has registered a false case against the petitioner and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that no contraband was recovered from this petitioner. He would further submit that based on the confession statement given by the co-accused this petitioner has been implicated as an accused. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 28.11.2024 and no similar kind of previous cases are pending against the petitioner. 4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 24.500kgs of ganja which is a commercial quantity. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the fact that no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and the petitioner has been implicated as an accused based on the confession given by the co-accused and no previous cases are pending against the petitioner and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner and though the call details have been produced by the prosecution it is a matter of trial, hence this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
