The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 165 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.04.2026 at about 5.45 p.m., while the defacto complainant was in election campaign, the petitioner parked his tracker near the auditorium and while the defacto complainant was questioning the same, the petitioner abused him in filthy language, attacked him with hummer, causing injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No. 8618 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 165 of 2026. He would further submit that there is a dispute between the parties regarding election campaign and the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that there is a dispute between the parties regarding election campaign and the injured was discharged from the hospital and also the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
