22 of 2023 dated 18.02.2026 and till the pending disposal of the above criminal revision petition.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been convicted by the trial Court on 17.02.2023 for the offence under Section 138 r/w 142 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881, and the trial Court sentenced her to undergo simple imprisonment for a one year and to pay a cheque amount of Rs.5,22,500/- (Rupees Five Lakhs Twenty Two Thousand and Five Hundred only) as compensation to the respondent within a period of two months, in default, to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of further two months, in S.T.C.No.916 of 2021 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Sivakasi.

3. The learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Srivilliputhur at Virudhunagar District, confirmed the conviction and sentence, and dismissed the C.A.No.22 of 2023, dated 18.02.2026. infirmities in the prosecution case, and also there are contradictions in material particulars between the evidence of the prosecution witnesses. Further, he submitted that the petitioner has already paid 25% of the cheque amount to the respondent.

5. This Court has carefully considered the rival contentions put forward by either side and also perused the materials available on record.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that there are certain infirmities and inconsistencies in this case, and also there are certain contradictions in material particulars. The fact remains that there are arguable points involved in this criminal revision and further, the criminal revision is not likely to be taken up for final hearing in the near future and as such, and also considering the bonafide expressed by the petitioner, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner herein is entitled to the relief of grant of suspension of sentence.
