The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 329 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 01.11.2025 at about 10.30 p.m., while the defacto complainant was talking with his friends, the petitioner and other accused were consuming liquors and the petitioner asked a cigarette from the defacto complainant and when he refused, there was a wordy quarrel arose between them, due to which at about 11.30 p.m., the petitioner and other accused way-laid him and abused in filthy language and attacked him with wooden log and sword, causing injuries and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 329 of 2025. He would further submit that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
