The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 467, 468, 471 & 120(B) of IPC in Crime No. 38 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused were fraudulently sold the property of the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is only the subsequent purchaser of the property and co-accused also granted anticipatory bail. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 467, 468, 471 & 120(B) of IPC in Crime No. 38 of 2025. He would further submit that there is a civil dispute between the parties. He would further submit that the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that there is a civil dispute between the parties and the petitioner is only the subsequent purchaser of the property and co-accused also granted anticipatory bail and the alleged occurrence took place on 20.03.2024 and however, FIR has been registered only on 14.10.2025 and by this time, material part of investigation might have been completed, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
