2. It is evident from the records that the marriage between the parties was solemnized on 01.06.2023 as per Hindu rites and customs and due to their wed-lock they were blessed with a female child now aged about 2 years and that subsequently, there arose some misunderstanding between them and they are living separately.

3. It is not in dispute that the respondent has filed a petition in H.M.O.P.No.32 of 2025, seeking restitution of conjugal rights and the same is pending on the file of the Sub Court, Ramanathapuram and that the petitioner has initiated the proceedings under the Domestic Violence Act and the same is pending in D.V.M.C.No.11 of 2024 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate Court, Ambasamudram.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is residing at Ambasamudram, Tirunelveli District along with female child and finds it very difficult to travel to Ramanathapuram to attend all the hearings.

5. The learned counsel for the respondent would submit that the respondent is ready to live with the petitioner. But according to the learned counsel on either side, the matter was referred to mediation, but the same ended in failure.

6. In the case of N.C.V.Aishwarya Vs. A.S.Saravana Karthik Sha reported in 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has reiterated the position with generally, it is the wife's convenience, which must be looked at while considering the transfer petition under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the relevant passage is extracted hereunder :

“The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.”, the bench observed.”

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the petitioner is residing at Tirunelveli District, this Court is inclined to allow this petition. Accordingly, the petition in H.M.O.P.No.32 of 2025, is ordered to be withdrawn from the file of the Sub Court, Ramanathapuram and transfer the same to the Sub Court, Ambasamudram, Tirunelveli. The learned Judge, Sub Court, Ramanathapuram, is hereby directed to transmit the entire records in H.M.O.P.No.32 of 2025 to the file of the Sub Court, Ambasamudram, within a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on receiving the case bundle, the learned Judge, Sub Court, Ambasamudram, is directed to take up the petition on file and proceed in accordance with law.

8. With the above direction, the Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition stands allowed. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
No costs.
