The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), and 351(2) of BNS, 2023, read with Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Woman (Amendment) Act, 2002, in Crime No.57 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the son of the de-facto complainant stole 38 sovereigns of gold jewellery from the house of one Siraj Nisha. Due to the said incident, the petitioner and the other accused allegedly tortured the de-facto complainant and her family members, assaulted her, trampled on her neck, and also threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the present case.

He further submitted that the co-accused have already been granted anticipatory bail and that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the co-accused have already been granted anticipatory bail and that there are no previous cases registered against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
