2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 529kgs of ganja. Hence, the case..

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the respondent police has registered a false case against the petitioner and he is not involved in any such activities as alleged by the respondent police. He would further submit that the petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 12.12.2023. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 529kgs of ganja which is a commercial quantity. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and that the contraband involved in this case is commercial quantity and already this Court has dismissed the bail petition filed by the petitioner and there is no change in circumstances of the case to consider the present petition for bail and further petitioner has not satisfied the twin condition as per Section 37 of the NDPS Act hence this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Hence the petition stands dismissed.
