prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioners are ready to file an undertaking affidavit to settle the issue by making payments to the victims, as was filed by the first accused in this case before this Court in CrI.O.P(MD)No.6965 of 2026. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners have no previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners and the petitioners are ready to file an undertaking affidavit to settle the issue by making payments to the victims, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days
