punishable under Sections 318(4) of BNS r/w Section 66D of IT Act, corresponding to Section 420 of IPC and Section 66 of IT Act, in Crime No.05 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused allegedly solicited the defacto complainant to invest money through a link, under the pretext of providing a part-time job via a Telegram platform, thereby committing financial fraud. Believing the same, the defacto complainant transferred a total sum of Rs.15,07,300/- from her bank accounts on various dates. Later, the accused cheated the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this
