4.The learned Government Advocate (Crk.Side) submitted that the injured died and the respondent police are now taking steps to alter Sections. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the fact that the injured has died and there exists a possibility of alteration of the penal provisions either under Section 302 IPC or under Section 304 IPC, depending upon the outcome of the investigation and medical evidence and also considering the gravity of the offence and the stage of investigation, this Court is not inclined to grant the relief of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.This Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed, accordingly.
