The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 74, 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.71 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 19.04.2026, when the daughter of the defacto complainant requested the assistance of the first petitioner to fix the gas cylinder, he misbehaved with her. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant and others on 20.04.2026, the accused persons abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him, due to which, he sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that there are no previous case pending against the petitioners. He further submitted that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Usilampatti, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which, the order copy was made ready and on further conditions that:
