ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 468, 471 and 120B of IPC, in Crime No.21 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons have sold the de-facto complainant's mother's property fraudulently by fabricating the documents. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is no way connected with the alleged occurrence as stated by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is only a witness to the document and is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. side) submitted that the accused persons have fraudulently sold the property of the de-facto complainant's mother and the petitioner is the witness to the document and there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and the petitioner is only a witness to the document and the other accused were also released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-IV, Tiruchirappalli, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate-IV, Tiruchirappalli, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on
