ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.]

The petitioner has filed this writ petition challenging the order, dated 26.03.2026, passed by the first respondent, rejecting the request made by the petitioner seeking three days emergency leave without police escort.

2. On perusal of the records, it is seen that the petitioner's husband was convicted for the offence under Sections 354A, 366, 376(3), 376(2)(n) of I.P.C., and Section 5(I) r/w 6(1) of POCSO Act, 2012, in Spl.S.c.No. 50 of 2023, on the file of the Fast Track Mahila Court, Ariyalur, and he was sentenced to undergo life imprisonment. Challenging the same, it is seen that the petitioner's husband has not preferred any appeal. While being so, the petitioner / wife of the convict applied for emergency leave for three days for her husband to visit her house and to see his aged mother and also on the ground that she has delivered a baby. However, the said request of the petitioner was rejected on the ground that the reasons stated in the application are not genuine. Further, on perusal of the records, it is seen that the petitioner obtained certificate from Kumar Clinic as if the convict's mother suffered from some ailments and not from any competent authority. Therefore, this Court finds no infirmity or illegality in the impugned order passed by the first respondent. Hence, this writ petition is liable to be dismissed.

3. Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to obtain a fresh certificate from anyone of the Government Hospitals and apply afresh, if so advised. No costs.
