The petitioner / Accused No.7, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 30.04.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 61(2), 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 324(2) and 109 of BNS in Crime No.44 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 03.04.2026, the defacto-complainant was taken by A1 and A2 to a coconut grove under the guise of negotiating the withdrawal of an earlier criminal case lodged by his wife against A1. Upon the defacto-complainant refusing to withdraw the said complaint, this petitioner and the other accused persons brutally assaulted him with iron rods, causing grievous injuries. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and that he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession of the co-accused. The petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured person was discharged from hospital on 16.05.2026. The petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 30.04.2026 and he has been in custody for more than 20 days. Hence, he has prayed for the grant of bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the injured person was discharged from the hospital on 16.05.2026. There are no previous cases against the petitioner herein. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
