2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence and found that the accused persons are in possession of 44 kilo grams of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and she was falsely implicated in this case and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Though the quantity involved is commercial quantity, no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and the entire contraband have been recovered from Co-accused. This petitioner has been implicated on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused. Co-accused in this case have also been released on bail. The petitioner was not arrested in the scene of occurrence. The petitioner is not the named accused in the FIR. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The entire contraband has been recovered from co-accused. On their confession statement the other accused persons have been implicated in this case. The petitioner has
