The petitioner, who was arrested on 01.04.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of BNS Act @ 296(b), 118(1), 109, 351(3), 103 of BNS Act, in Crime No.88 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 06.03.2026 at about 03.00p.m., the cattle and cows of the defacto complainant entered into the paddy field of the petitioner and destroyed it. Due to that incident, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with a spade and caused criminal intimidation with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint. Without responding to the treatment, the defacto complainant died, therefore, provision of law has been subsequently altered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any such offence. He has been falsely implicated in this case. He has no intention to cause grievous injuries to the defacto complaint. He has no previous cases at his credit. He would further submit that he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 01.04.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that due to the assault made by the petitioner, the defacto complaint died without responding to the treatment. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
