2. It is seen that the petitioner was earlier granted bail and thereafter due to his non appearance the Non Bailable was issued as against the petitioner on 19.12.2025 and thereafter the same was executed..

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that earlier the petitioner was granted bail and thereafter he was unable to appear before the trial Court and thereby Non Bailable Warrant was issued against him and he was arrested pursuant to the execution of Non Bailable Warrant and he is in judicial custody from 13.02.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to non appearance of the accused Non Bailable Warrant was issued and the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody. He would further submit that the petitioner is a history sheeted rowdy and he is having so many previous cases and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and the fact that earlier the petitioner was granted bail and thereafter due to his non appearance Non Bailable Warrant was issued and the petitioner was in custody from 13.02.2026 and during the pendency of the Non Bailable Warrant the petitioner surrendered before the concerned Court and he was remanded and though the petitioner is a history sheeted rowdy and having so many previous cases in all those cases he was granted bail and also taking into consideration the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Sivagangai and on further conditions that:
