2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is a Teacher. During the working hours he came to the School in drunken mode and also smoking in the school premises. By showing the obscene picture to the girls he sexually harassed the girl children. Hence, the complaint has been lodged by the parents. On that basis this case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner, who is a teacher, gave sexual torture to the girl children in the School by showing the obscene pictures. The statement of the victim girls under Section 183(5) of BNS was also recorded. Investigation has also been completed and the final report was filed before the concerned Court. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, the investigation has been completed, final report has been filed before the concerned Court and statement of the victim girls have also been recorded under Section 183(5) of BNS and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Sessions Judge, (FTMC), Karur, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the learned Sessions Judge, (FTMC), Karur, at 10.30 a.m., on every Monday for a period of four weeks, thereafter, as and when required for interrogation:

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he/she is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he/she is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
