The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 305 of BNS, 2023 (380 of IPC), in Crime No.94 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners along with the other accused persons are alleged to have stolen the iron pipes, angle irons and wires kept on the defacto complainant's farm. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the entire stolen properties have been recovered and also the petitioners have no previous case. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and considering the facts that the entire stolen properties have been recovered and no previous case is pending against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Thiruchuli, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready and on further conditions that:
