The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offence punishable under Section 318(4) BNS in Crime No. Not Known of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the first petitioner herein is the owner of the property. While so, Prabhakaran offered to purchase one of the quarries from the 1st petitioner for the purpose of his business and he approached the 1st petitioner herein. As such, an oral sale agreement was entered into between first petitioner and Prabhakaran and the sale consideration was fixed at Rs.7,00,00,000/-. Pursuant to the same, Prabhakaran had paid a sum of Rs.1,58,01,800/- through bank on various dates between 01.07.2022 to 31.03.2023. Later, after inspecting the materials, Prabhakaran was not inclined to get the sale deed executed. However, not satisfied with the same, when Prabhakaran contacted the 1st petitioner to repay the said amount, the first petitioner had denied to repay the amount and further, he had issued two unfilled cheques for a sum of Rs.4,00,00,000/-. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submits that they have been falsely implicated in the case. Hence, he prays for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of the offences charged against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that the
