The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 140(3) and 142 of BNS Act, in Crime No.108 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a money dispute, the petitioner went to the defacto complainant's house, abducted him, tortured him and forcibly recovered money and other articles from him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.9619 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) fairly submits that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are business partners. Due to a money dispute, the petitioner trespassed into the defacto complainant's house, threatened him and forcibly recovered money and other articles from him and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he opposes to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also considering the relationship between the parties, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
