The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 and 3(1) of TNPPDL Act, in Crime No.787 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.10.2025 the petitioner trespassed in to the house of the defacto complainant at night hours and abused him in filthy language and attacked him and caused injuries and damaged the household articles. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions which may be imposed by this Court.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) submitted that the injured has been discharged from hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also the fact that the injured has already been discharged from hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Thoothukudi District, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the that:

[a]the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police weekly once, ie., on every Monday at 10.30 a.m, until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d]the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e]On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in
