The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of BNS, 2023 r/w. Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.68 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 17.05.2026, upon receiving secret information, the respondent Police conducted a vehicle check, and at that time, the petitioners herein were allegedly found to have illegally transported two units of river sand using their vehicle. Hence, a case has been registered against the accused for the aforesaid offences. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) fairly submits that the property has been recovered, that A1 has five previous cases of a similar nature, that A2 has one previous case of a similar nature, and that the investigation is still pending. Hence, he opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side, the nature of the offences alleged against the petitioners, and the fact that the property has already been recovered, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Kamuthi, Ramanathapuram District, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready and on further conditions that:
