2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner kidnaped the victim girl from the house of the victim and committed sexual assault against the victim girl. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Investigation in this case has been completed, final report was filed and trial commenced. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner kidnapped the victim girl and committed sexual assault upon her. He has two previous cases pending against him. Investigation has been completed and final report has also been filed before the concerned Court. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, the investigation has been completed, final report has been filed before the concerned Court and trial commenced, though the petitioner has some previous cases he was granted bail in those cases and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Sessions Judge, Special Court for POCSO Act Cases, Kanniyakumari District at Nagercoil, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the learned Sessions Judge, Special Court for POCSO Act Cases, Kanniyakumari District at Nagercoil, at 10.30 a.m., on all working days until further orders:

[c] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he/she is accused, or suspected, or of the
