CRL OP(MD), No.9783 of 2026

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 326(g), 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.184 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners are the adjacent land owner of the defacto complainant. On 09.04.2026, at about 12.00 p.m, the petitioners set fire on the coconut shed of the defacto complainant and the same was informed him by his employees. Immediately, he went to the scene of occurrence and questioned the illegal act of the accused. However, without giving proper reply, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, a case has been registered against the accused for the aforesaid offences. Hence, this petition.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and there was only wordy altercation between the parties, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Tiruppuvanam, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is
