The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 132, 296(b) and 329(4) of BNS, in Crime No.89 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with others trespassed into the defacto complainant's house, caused damage to the household articles, abused her in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offences as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that no one has injured in this case and that four cases came to be registered for the same incident and

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Karaikudi, Sivagangai District, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and on further conditions that:

[a]the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or bank pass book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police weekly once i.e., on every Monday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;
