The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 305(a) (NP) of BNS in Crime No. 157 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the owner of Anitha Fabricks and the petitioner was working as Manager. On 27.04.2026, when the defacto complainant went to Sivagiri branch, he found that the petitioner and another stolen the machines and others worth about Rs.2,83,500/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned counsel for the intervenor would submit that the offences are criminal in nature and the petitioner along with others have stolen the machines worth about Rs.2,83,500/- and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Counsel for State of TN (CrI.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Section 305(a) (NP) of BNS in Crime No. 157 of 2026. He would further submit that the main accused were arrested and entire property was recovered. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the main accused were arrested and entire property was recovered and also the petitioner has no previous case, I am inclined to
