The petitioner/accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) BNS in Crime No.384 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there existed previous enmity between the parties, due to which the petitioner along with other accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. It is not in dispute that the petitioner along with other accused persons moved an anticipatory bail petition in Crl.M.P.No.2219 of 2025 before the Principle Sessions Court, Sivagangai and they were granted anticipatory bail with conditions and that since the petitioner has not complied with the conditions imposed, at the instance of the respondent, anticipatory bail came to be cancelled in Crl.M.P.No. 620 of 2025 vide order dated 06.10.2025.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to comply with the conditions to be imposed by this Court without fail.

5. The learned Counsel for State of Tamil Nadu appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner is having two previous cases.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the facts that except the offence under section 118(1) BNS, all other offences are bailable in nature and that the petitioner has already been granted anticipatory bail by the Sessions Court, however, cancelled for non-compliance, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be
