2. According to the petitioner, she is conducting regular vocational training programmes in the said survey field and claims that the patta stands in her name. It is her contention that the fourth respondent has initiated steps to evict her from the property at the instance of certain third parties. Earlier, the petitioner had challenged the eviction proceedings by filing W.P.(MD) Nos. 12468 of 2019, 24380 of 2024, and 9383 of 2025. Merely because the petitioner has instituted a civil suit seeking declaratory and consequential reliefs, this Court cannot grant a blanket order restraining the authorities from proceeding in accordance with law until the suit is finally decided. If the petitioner requires urgent protection, it is open to her to
