The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.04.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 103(1) and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No. 120 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, due to a prior monetary dispute, on 15.04.2026 at about 08:45 p.m., the accused persons, intercepted the defacto-complainant's husband, abused him in filthy language, assaulted him with their hands and a wooden log, and also criminally intimidated him. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that co-accused have already been enlarged on bail by this Court. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.04.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered against the accused persons. The petitioner has four previous cases. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail by this Court and further considering the fact that though the petitioner has previous cases to his credit, he has already been acquitted in two cases and he was granted bail in the remaining cases, as well as the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
