The petitioner/Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 06.04.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 109, and 351(3) of BNS in Crime No.143 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, there was a wordy quarrel arose between the parties and that the petitioner herein attacked the defacto complainant and also abused him in filthy language.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was earlier enlarged on bail with a condition to appear before the respondent police every day. Due to non-compliance with the said condition, the bail granted to him came to be cancelled. This is the second petition seeking bail. Hence, prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner was secured only on 06.04.2026 after a considerable period of time. It is further submitted that the case involves an offence of attempt to murder and that the petitioner is a history-sheeter. In such circumstances, if released on bail, there is a likelihood of him absconding again. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the fact that already the petitioner was already granted bail in this case and thereafter, due to non-compliance of condition, bail was cancelled by the trial Court, thereafter, the petitioner was remanded into judicial custody on 06.04.2026, as well as considering the stage of completion of investigation and also period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
