For Appellant : Mr.Kandarp Trivedi
For Mr.R.L.Dhilipan Pandian

For Respondent : Mr.K.Kaviarasan

JUDGMENT

Heard Mr.Kandarp Trivedi for Mr.R.L.Dhilipan Pandian appearing for the appellant and Mr.K.Kaviarasan for the respondent.

2. Today, when the matter was taken up, Mr.S.Arul Selvan, the authorised representative of the appellant, was present. Mrs.P.Jeeva was present online. She was permitted to appear online on account of her inability to move due to severe leg pain from which she is presently suffering.

3. I heard the parties and their respective counsel.

4. The arbitration proceedings had been initiated on account of the fact that the respondent had reported certain unauthorised trading at the instance of the appellant. It resulted in an award against the appellant on 11.01.2025. The petition to set aside the award came to be dismissed by the learned Principal District Judge, Thanjavur, on 13.03.2026. Aggrieved by the same, the present appeal has been filed invoking Section 37 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

5. Insofar as the terms of the compromise are concerned, Mrs.P.Jeeva is agreeable to all the clauses other than Clause No.7. She stands by her statement that the trading carried on by the appellant was unauthorised. However, she wants to put an end to the agony of the litigation, by entering into the terms of compromise. She agrees that she has received the demand draft in terms of Clause 6(3).

6. Hence, the compromise is recorded with respect to all the terms other than Clause No.7. The appeal stands disposed of accordingly. The terms of compromise shall form a part of this order. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
