2. The case of the prosecution is that on 08.05.2026 on the secret information, the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence and found that the accused persons are in possession of 2 kgs. of Ganja. Hence, the case.

3. he learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is in no way connected with this present case. He was falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The petitioner along with other accused persons was in possession of 2 kgs. of Ganja. The petitioner has four previous cases under IPC offences. Investigation has been completed and final report has also been filed before the concerned Court. Hence, opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

offence of which he/she is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he/she is suspected;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade her from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence;

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 BNS.
