2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons sold the banned Lottery tickets through online. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, he abused him in filthy languages and als deterred him from discharging his duty. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. The petitioner sold the banned lottery tickets through online and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, he abused him with dire consequences. The petitioner has three previous cases. Investigation is still pending. He vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
