2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information on 24.01.2026, the respondent police went to scene of occurrence and found that the accused persons are in possession of 21.200. of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Though the quantity involved is commercial quantity, no contraband was recovered from this petitioner and the entire contraband have been recovered from Co-accused. This petitioner has been implicated on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused. Co-accused in this case have also been released on bail. The petitioner was not arrested in the scene of occurrence. The petitioner is not the named accused in the FIR. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. The entire contraband has been recovered from A1. On their confession statement the other accused persons have been implicated in this case. The petitioner has 20 previous cases, out of which, 6 cases were disposed of, in one case, he was acquitted and 10 cases are similar in nature, out of 10 cases two cases are registered for the commercial quantity. Investigation in this case has been completed and charge sheet has also been filed before the concerned Court. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the nature of charges levelled against the petitioner, the quantity involved in this case is commercial quantity, the contraband was recovered from A1 and no contraband has been recovered from this petitioner, on the basis of the confession statement of the co-accused this petitioner has been implicated in this case, co-accused namely A1 has also been released on bail, though the prosecution has stated that the petitioner has 20 previous cases, out of which, 6 cases were disposed of, in one case, he was acquitted and 10 cases are similar in nature, out of 10 cases two cases are registered for the commercial quantity, in all other cases already he was granted bail, and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court
