The petitioner/Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 69, 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(2), 318(4) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.38 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The prosecution case is that A1, on the false promise of marriage, induced the victim to engage in sexual intercourse on several occasions. He thereafter threatened her not to disclose the same and dishonestly obtained money and gold jewellery from her, thereby cheating her. A2, the mother of A1, is also alleged to have abused the victim in filthy language and threatened her to leave her son. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the petitioner has no previous criminal antecedents and that the investigation is still pending. He further submitted that a huge sum of money is involved in the case. The petitioner, who is the mother of A1, is also alleged to be involved in the offence. Hence, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, considering the dispute between the parties and the petitioner has no previous case and for the date of occurrence is 10.06.2025, the case was registered only on 23.05.2026 and considering all other facts and circumstances of the case I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following condition:
