2. The case of the prosecution is that there is civil suit is pending between the parties. While so, there was wordy quarrel arose between them. During which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Due to previous dispute, this complaint has been lodged. Hence, he prays to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that the offences are grave in nature. There is previous civil dispute between the parties. Due to which the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant an criminally intimidated them. The petitioner has no previous cases. Investigation is still pending. He vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
