The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.03.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 5(l), 5(j)(ii), 5(n), 6 of POCSO Act, 2012 in Crime No. 03 of 2026.. on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the victim, who was a minor at the time of occurrence were fell in love and had sexual intercourse, thereby, the victim got pregnant. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that he has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.03.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the mother of the victim the case has been registered. He would further submit that though the investigation has been completed and charge sheet filed, considering the grave nature of offence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and considering the facts that the statement of victim under Section 183 of BNSS was recorded; that the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner as well as the stage of completion of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:

*[a] Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Sessions Judge, Fast Track
