The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 468 and 471 of IPC in Crime No. 130 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the properties belonging to the defacto complainant's grandmother were fraudulently acquired by the A1, by forging the legal heir certificate and A1 executed power deed in favour of A2 and in turn, A2 executed sale deed in favour of A3. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 420, 465, 468 and 471 of IPC in Crime No. 130 of 2025. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that according to the prosecution, A1 executed power deed in favour of A2/petitioner and in turn, A2 executed sale deed in favour of A3 and A3 already granted anticipatory bail and the main accused A1 was also secured by the police and no previous case is pending as against this petitioner and this petitioner has only acted as agent and as the FIR has been registered on 20.05.2025, by this time investigation might have been completed, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:
