CRL OP(MD). No.10449 of 2026

The petitioner/A2, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 29.12.2023 for the offences punishable under Sections 8(c) r/w.20(b)(ii)

(c) of NDPS Act in Crime No. 652 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 60 kgs of ganja. Hence, the case..

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the respondent police has registered a false case against the petitioner and she is not involved in any such activities as alleged by the respondent police. He would further submit that the petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 29.12.2023. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 60kgs of ganja which is a commercial quantity. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side and that the contraband involved in this case is commercial quantity and already this Court has dismissed the bail petition filed by the petitioner and there is no change in circumstances of the case to consider the present petition for bail and though the petitioner raised medical grounds as per the report of the jail authorities at present no need for surgery and now the petitioner is symptoms free and taking her regular hypertensive medications and doing her routine activities inside the prison campus hence this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.

7. Hence the petition stands dismissed.
