The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Section 318(4) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 33 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.06.2025, the petitioner and her husband, who cheated 38 grams of gold jewelry of the defacto complainant, committed criminal breach of trust, illegally withheld the property, threatened him and committed fraud through a joint conspiracy. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected in the above said incident. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that already main accused/husband of the petitioner has been arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prayed to grant Anticipatory Bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Section 318(4) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No. 33 of 2026. He would further submit that the petitioner has no previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioner, and considering the facts that the alleged occurrence took place on 10.06.2025; however, FIR has been lodged only on 30.01.2026, belatedly, and no previous case is against this petitioner and already main accused/husband of the petitioner has been arrested and released on bail, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released
