2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.05.2025 at about 4.30 p.m., the accused persons come by covering their faces with masks and assaulted the defacto complainant with a help of a bill hook and caused injuries to him and also threatened him. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl. Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the offence are grave in nature. Due to the previous dispute, the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, the defacto complainant sustained injuries on his hand. There is no previous case against the petitioner. He opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
