The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 4(1)(c), 4(1)(A) of The Tamil Nadu Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 2024 in Crime No. 182 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.05.2026, at about 09.00a.m., the respondent police were conducted raid and found that the accused was found in illegal possession of 28 wine bottles in a white sack, for the purpose of resale and a sum of Rs.500/- in cash. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the alleged property was recovered by the prosecution. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.05.2026. Therefore, prayed to grant bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner was found in illegal possession wine bottles. The petitioner has 10 previous cases at his credit. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that the alleged property was recovered by the prosecution and the quantity involved in this case and further considering the fact that though the petitioner has previous cases to his credit, he has already been granted bail in the previous cases registered against him, as well as the period of
