The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on execution of NBW on 13.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 392, 397, 395, 452, 34 and 506(2) IPC in Crime No. 20 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.01.2023, the accused persons forcibly entered into the house of the defacto complainant, abused and threatened her with knife and also robbed her jewellery, mobile phone and cash of Rs.10,000/-. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner was already released on bail and since the petitioner has not turned up for the hearing, Non-Bailable Warrant (NBW) was issued and the same was executed on 13.05.2026 and he is still in judicial custody. He would further submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

CRL OP(MD). No.10398 of 2026

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that due to non-appearance, the Non-Bailable Warrant was issued against the petitioner. He would further submit that if the petitioner released on bail, he may abscond, which would affect the trial. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, nature of offence, and the fact that already the petitioner was granted bail and thereafter, due to non-appearance, NBW was issued and also considering the fact that the case against the petitioner is pending before the I Additional District and Sessions Court, Trichy District in SC No.144 of 2024 and posted for appearance of accused persons as well as considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
