ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner / Accused, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.05.2026 for the offences punishable under Section 7(a) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 as amended by the Prevention of Corruption (Amendment Act), 2018 in Crime No. 2 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.05.2026 at about 09.15 hours, the petitioner, who is a Public Servant was caught red-handed while receiving illegal gratification of Rs.1 lakh from the defacto complainant for releasing the final amount relating to Government Road strengthening and widening works executed through EKS Constructions. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he was falsely implicated in this case and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been arrested and remanded to judicial

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that based on the complaint lodged by the defacto complainant, the case has been registered against the accused persons. Though the petitioner has no previous cases, considering the nature of offence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. This Court heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the nature of the offence and the fact that the alleged occurrence borne out of records, thereby, there is no chance for tampering the evidence and further considering the fact that the petitioner has no previous cases to his credit, as well as the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
