ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 329(4), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, in Crime No. 246 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 30.05.2026, the petitioners went to the defacto complainant's house, attacked him with wooden log, caused injuries and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they were falsely implicated in this case and they are no way connected in the above said incident. They have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint given by the defacto complainant, a case has been registered for the offences punishable under Sections 329(4), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that the petitioners have one previous case. He would further submit that the investigation is pending and the offences are grave in nature and hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions made on either side and the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, and considering the facts that injured was discharged from the hospital and though the petitioners have one previous case, in that case bail was granted to them, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:
